BLOOD DONATION CAMP

Date of Event	23.04.2026
Name of the Event	Blood Donation Camp.
Type of the Event	Community Service
Conducted by	School of Nursing, Arka Jain University in association with Samaritan the Nursing club, Sports Council, Biotechnology Department & National Service Scheme (NSS)
No. of Participants	30

OBJECTIVE:

To collect safe and adequate blood to meet the needs of patients during emergencies, surgeries, and medical treatments and create awareness about voluntary blood donation and encourage people to donate blood regularly to save lives.

DETAILS: A Blood Donation Camp was successfully organized by the School of Nursing Samaritan the nursing club, Arka Jain University, in collaboration with Sadar Hospital, Saraikela-Kharsawan. The event was conducted in association with the Sports Council, Department of Biotechnology, and the National Service Scheme (NSS). The camp witnessed enthusiastic participation from both students and faculty members across various departments. A total of approximately 30 donors actively participated in the noble cause, contributing to the collection of around 10,500ml of blood. The event was graced by the esteemed presence of Dr. Nakul Prasad Choudhary (Deputy Medical Superintendent) of Seraikela District Hospital, as well as representatives from MGM Hospital. Their presence and encouragement significantly motivated the donors and added value to the initiative. I like to thank the convener- Prof.Ginu Anie Joseph (Principal -SON), Dr. Rupa Sarkar (Sports Council Chairperson), Dr. Santosh Kumar Singh (HOD -Biotechnology Department), NSS Coordinator & team for making this Event successful.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES): The blood donation camp results in the collection of safe and adequate blood units to support patients in need and save lives. It also increases awareness about voluntary blood donation and encourages community participation in humanitarian healthcare services.
