SESSION ON CONSTITUTIONAL AWARENESS

Date of Event	24-Apr-2026
Name of the Event	Session on Constitutional Awareness
Type of the Event	Sensitization of students and employees to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens
Conducted by	Department of Management - MBA
Coordinated by	Dr. Abhishek Upadhyay, Dr. Subrato Kumar Dey
No. of Participants	36

OBJECTIVES:

- To create awareness among students about fundamental rights and duties enshrined in the Indian Constitution.
- To enhance students' understanding of constitutional values such as justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity.
- To encourage critical thinking on the gap between constitutional provisions and their real-life application.
- To promote responsible citizenship and ethical conduct in personal and professional life.
- To sensitize students towards their role in strengthening democratic institutions.

DETAILS:

The students were divided into groups and each group was given a short real-life constitutional dilemma - (e.g., privacy vs surveillance, protest vs public order).

The areas to be addressed were -Which right/duty is involved?

What is the conflict?

What should be the ideal resolution?

Each group presented their scenario which was followed by the Indian Constitutional Quiz

TAKEAWAYS (OUTCOME)

- Students will develop a clearer understanding of their constitutional rights and responsibilities.
- Increased awareness of real-world challenges in implementing constitutional provisions.
- Improved ability to critically analyze societal and legal issues.
- Development of a sense of civic responsibility and ethical awareness.
- Enhanced engagement in discussions related to governance, law, and public policy.
